Job offer: Junior Food Regulatory/Scientific Adviser Fixed contract (12 months), with possibility to renew

ECCO is a Brussels-based independent consultancy specialised in EU food policy and the management of trade associations in the food sector.

We are currently looking for a dynamic Junior Food Regulatory/Scientific Adviser for a fixed term contract of 12 months, with possibility to renew, to support our team of senior food experts in the management of technical and regulatory issues.

The successful candidate will:

- have good academic qualifications in food science (technology, nutrition, chemistry...) and/or EU food law.
- have a keen interest in the food ingredient sector and be ready to take on a challenge
- have excellent analytical, organisational and written & verbal communication skills and a quick mindset
- be fluent in English and have a good command of at least one other European language. French would be an asset.
- Be a team player, enjoy being part of a dynamic multicultural team and working in an international environment

This is a stimulating opportunity for an enthusiastic young professional to gain valuable knowledge in food policy and the regulatory environment. Whilst a preliminary professional experience would be preferred, it is not a pre-requisite.

This position is Brussels-based. The candidate must have the right to work full-time in Belgium.

Please send CV and motivation letter by 24th February to:
